IN GRAFT CASE

Latest Developments. Lock Bad. In Chicago's Negro Alderman, Oscar De Priest, Stripped of Lieutenant in Mayor Thompson's Following. Denies Charges. State's Attorney says...

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 25.—Police Capt. Stephen K. Irvly and Henry (Toon) Jones have confessed to charge made against them in indictments obtained for members of the "Vigilant Trust" last week.

States Attorney Horne says his statements obtained clinches the case against Oscar DelPriest, Negro Alameda, and all who have been mentioned in the "Black Belt" shake up. DelPriest has been stripped of lieutenant in Mayor Thompson's following, a

A dozen places in the Cottage Grove Avenue and Stanton Avenue police districts are listed as tribute pads. Each, Mr. Hoyne says, paid its "bribe" in the "syndicate" headed by Alvin Karpis.

"Profits from the dozen or more gambling houses operated by the syndicate ran into thousands of dollars a month," said Mr. Hoyne.

"Jones," says De Priest got the biggest share. The Alderman let the men go around that as long as the present administration remained in power.

far as they wanted to—so long as we was "declared in."

Alderman De Priest denied the charges made against him, saying that "The statements of Capt. Reedy at 'Toonan' Jones are mysteries I can solve," he said, in reply to a question. "I have never taken any money from him. I don't understand the situation."

Mr. Hoyne already has a confession from Cadmus covering his partnership with De Priest. He refused to accept a confession from Lewis because the latter insisted on a guarantee of immunity.

White, who also confessed, are white and it is stated that they have earned Hoyne's promise of "consideration," for baring the workings of the "syndicate."

COURAGE WITH BACKBONE

We published last week a news article telling of a flying trip of Governor Stanley, of Kentucky, to the little town of Murray, to prevent a lynching which threatened to take place if the local judge granted a continuance in the case of a Colored man who was charged with killing a white man.

The more we learn of the acts of the governor in this case, the stranger he illumines as an outstanding character, and model for the men in high political positions.

The mob, after hearing his most eloquent speech, in which he said with all his soul, before blackening my soul with a base perjury and submitting to the dictates of a disorderly mob, I would suffer you to hang me by the neck until I was dead," and seeing that the governor meant it, they began sulking away one and two at a time.

We need a few more governors like Stanley. Yes, men who will say a thing and mean it; men who are able to stand the "jeers" of a mob to uphold the majesty of the law.

In his plea for right and justice the governor said:

"There is but one difference between civilization and savagery, between communities where men sleep at night with unlocked doors to their wives and children about them and none to make them afraid, as you are wont to do here in Calloway—there is but one difference between such a community and the jungle where a savage chief stands with a whittled club above the body of his dusky spouse to protect her and his simple holdings by the strength of his right arm. Courteousness, reverence for law and order, and the willingness of every citizen to look to the law for the vindication of his wrongs and the protection of his property are the essence of civilization. When you defy courts and insult judges, you lapse into barbarism, you relinquish all claim to civilization."

"I speak here in this temple of justice, not only with the authority of the civil law, but with the sanction of a higher decree first proclaimed from Sinai."

"I am here not to snatch the accused from punishment, but to save him from violence; not to paralyze, but to give vigor and strength and dignity to the strong arm of the law. It is my purpose to see that this man is tried as speedily as may be consistent with his security, while on trial, and freedom from every form of outside interference."

"I appeal from those who would incite to murder to mothers and wives and children. Go back to your homes, and tell them what I have said to you and what you have almost done, and if they condemn me or condemn this judge, come and wreak your vengeance upon us both, if you can."

"Before blackening my soul with a base perjury and submitting to the dictates of a disorderly mob, I would suffer you to hang me by the neck until I was dead, or in your ferocious wrath to tear me limb from limb and feed the dismembered fragments to the vultures, or burn my body at the stake and send back to my wife and children the ashes of a brave and honest man, rather than to purchase a cycle of security at the price of perfidy, cowardice, and dishonor."

That is real eloquence because it expresses conviction and courage and was backed by action.

BUSINESS CONFIDENCE

According to an article which appeared in the "Post-Dispatch" of Jan. 24, Olive Street Terrace Realty Co., with offices in the Boatmen's Bank Building, it appears that the officers and salesmen have a well organized scheme to double charge the Negroes who buy lots from the company in South Kinloch.

The company has not been fair to their Negro clients. They have discriminated against the Negro and according to statement made in the "Post-Dispatch," the president of the Olive Street Terrace Co., Mr. Ferris, states that the Negroes must pay twice as much as the whites for the lots, and that the company would not sell to the Negroes even for cash for the same price that they would sell to the whites.

It will be remembered that the representatives of the Olive Street Co., have, for the past four or five years, gone around and begged and coaxed the Colored people to buy lots at Kinloch and as we understand there has been much dissatisfaction on the part of purchasers and law suits have followed.

The frontiers of these professed friends of the Negro who have sold lots at an exorbitant price, to the Negroes will be shattered, and the next time such men come around with a "gold brick" to sell, the Negro will look a long time before he will accept their proposition. Successful business is run on confidence.

WOMEN OFFICERS

Now that the fourteen year old daughter of a South Carolina sheriff stood off a mob with her father's pistol, saying, "I'll shoot the first one who enters this jail," we think it is high time for the women not only to vote, but they should hold office and, no doubt there would be less lynching in the South.

The act of this young Miss. has clearly proven the fallacy of the time worn saying of officers that, "the mob overpowered" the sheriff. Any man who has not the courage of a fourteen year old girl has no business with an office.

"A NEGRO WEST POINT"

"Giles B. Jackson and other Negroes," so say the wires, have appeared before a Senate committee in Washington and asked for the establishment of a "Negro West Point."

Giles is an alleged lawyer from Richmond, Virginia, who has figured in a number of Jim-crow propositions, but this one caps the climax.

How any man born in America, says go to Congress and ask that the badge of inferiority be placed upon him and the address by Congressional action, is beyond the comprehension of The Appeal.

If colored men are willing to risk their lives in defense of their country, they ought to be trained in the existing West Point and if they are Jim-crowed they ought to refuse to enlist.

It would be interesting to look into Giles' head and see the wheels go round.—St. Paul Appeal.

America has no business in the wars of Europe. The varied sympathies of her population make it unwise to throw herself on the side of either belligerent. It would produce a house divided against itself and tear the nation into fragments by internal dissensions. Let us follow wisdom where "ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace."

ST. PAUL A. M. E. CHURCH

Last Sunday Dr. Johnson preached a stirring sermon from the subject, "Heavenly Citizenship." The message of the Holy Spirit was demonstrated by the shower of flowers from all sections of the church. Dr. Johnson's sermons are better and better each Sunday. A blessing awaits you at St. Paul. Come and worship with us.

The new financial system is progressing nicely. Bring the children to Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. and come to the League at 6:30 p. m. Welcome to the weekly work.

RACIOALIBERATE SERMON AT ST. JAMES

Dr. W. H. Peck will preach the bi-calculare sermon to the graduates of Summer High, Sunday, January 25, at 11 a. m. This promises to be a literary treat, as Dr. Peck's reputation as a gifted pulpitist is well known.

St. James A. M. E. Sunday School This is one of the most wide awake schools in the city. The Primary Department has a new idea. Every one of our most capable young women are at the head of the class. Misses O. Williams and Margaret Stewart, who are devoting both time and talent to this special work. Under the new system they have inaugurated, this is destined to become the most complete and profitable among our churches. We are glad to report the release of Mr. Peck, who is very ill at this writing. We are praying for a speedy recovery of the saintly superintendent and hoping will be spared to administer to her comfort. For mother, Mrs. McCampbell, of Kansas City, will be her.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Martin, the evangelist, is conducting live and very successful meetings. In his plans to let pour out the gospel. Last Sunday he was aided by the Gospel Band. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Mealy, makes all visitors and strangers welcome. The service is a singing school for the Sunday school. The choir of 4025 Flannery, the oldest number in the church, is sick. We were pleased to have Sister M. Brown visit, a colored sister, and a young lady with us. Mrs. Page has been on the sick list for the last few weeks. A large campaign is expected in Feb.

Metropolitan Notes

Great Revival at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church conducted by Bishop Kyles, of Metropolitan Church, are drawing larger and larger crowds each night. The kitchen is packed with popular qualifications, such as justly fit him; for evangelistic work; he is not only wonderful in preaching but great in his singing. People are being converted in every service. Sunday afternoon, he will speak to married men and married women only, or those who have been married. This will be a wonderful message; in his spoken a number of times on similar occasions. Nothing is more beautiful than to see strong robust men and women give up the things of the world and take a firm stand for Jesus Christ. The Metropolitan church is rendering splendid music, it is meeting the hearts of the people with a gospel in song. —All are welcome to these services.

Art of Papermaking Given To the World by Captive Chinese in Eight Century

In a communication to the National Geographic society, issued by the society as a bulletin, John Oliver Lee George says: "How much we deplore the stringency in raw material for the paper market brought about by the European war, it should not be forgotten that to the beneficent results of a battle fought nearly twelve centuries ago can be traced the introduction of the art of papermaking to the western world. China is credited with having returned the genius who first conceived the idea of a writing material made from fibrous pulp, and some investigators profess to have found evidence that paper existed in the colonial kingdom at least two centuries before the Christian era. Whether these claims of antiquity are correct will require the light of further research, or whether they will be discarded just as have been the same nation's claim to the invention of the mariner's compass and gunpowder, the fact is fairly well established that when the Arabs defeated a riding party of crusaders before the gates of Jerusalem in the middle of the eighth century, they captured a party of Chinese who were skilled paper makers. It was from this city of their captives that the art of their most renowned of Mongol princes, Tamerlane, that the art of these captives spread throughout Asia Minor and Southern Africa and India, and Spain and Italy, where the first extensive factories were established in 1276 at Fabriano, still a center of the paper industry in Southern Europe.

"Up to the closing years of the eighteenth century all paper was made by hand, sheet by sheet, but in the thirteenth year that Napoleon fought the battle of the Pyramids, Louis Robert, a humble workman in the paper mill of Digne, in Rouman, south of Paris, invented a machine for making paper in an endless web. The invention was developed in England by the two Frenchmen, who had just a fortune in paper work. The machine, however, are perpetuated in the papermaking machines of the present day.

The first American paper mill was started in 1792 at Middlebury in Rutland county, New Hampshire, just 20 years after the first permanent English settlement in the United States of America."

Mothers' Cook Book

The simplest task the hand can try, the diet of a child, is the most important. Mothers can easily afford to make a whole wheat cake with honey. Whole wheat feeds for children. Fruits in season are always good for the youngsters. To keep them rosy-cheeked and sturdy. Cornmeal, oatmeal and whole wheat about a large part of the diet of young and old.

Cereal Recipes

Take a cupful of whole oatmeal, one-half cupful of barley flakes and one-half teaspoonful of salt, a pint of milk, a quart of water, a yeast cake and whole wheat flour. Mix the cereal, add salt to the boiling water and stir in the cereal; cook about two hours, rub through a sieve, adding water to make three cupfuls of groats, then add the milk, previously scalded, and the yeast cake, dissolved in two tablespoonfuls of water. Add sufficient whole wheat flour to make a soft dough, mixing thoroughly with a spoon, beating for five minutes. Let stand well covered in a warm place to rise until very light. Add about four, milk again and pour into a greased pan to stand until light. Bake in a moderate oven for 40 minutes.

Whole Wheat Raisin Bread

Take three cupfuls of milk, one cupful of water, one-half cupful of rye, one year cake and whole wheat flour. Mix the cereal, add salt to the boiling water and stir in the cereal; cook about two hours, rub through a sieve, adding water to make three cupfuls of groats, then add the milk, previously scalded, and the yeast cake, dissolved in two tablespoonfuls of water. Add sufficient whole wheat flour to make a soft dough, mixing thoroughly with a spoon, beating for five minutes. Let stand well covered in a warm place to rise until very light. Add about four, milk again and pour into a greased pan to stand until light. Bake in a moderate oven for 40 minutes.

Apple Roly Poly

Chop two cupfuls of apples very fine, add a half cupful of raisins and place in a heavy saucepan with butter. Put up with all the lard on top and pour in a deep saucepan, adding a cupful of boiling water, a cupful of brown sugar and one-half cupful of butter. Bake in a moderate oven one hour. Serve with a sauce made from brown sugar, water and butter boiled to a thin syrup, or with sweetened whipped cream. This pudding may be made in individual puddings if desired. Warm ginger, bread with cream, either whipped or plain, makes a most wholesome dinner.

Wanted One More

A large manufacturing concern sent frequent and urgent demands to a certain confidential dealer and, being unable to get so much as a response, sent a representative to personally wait upon him. Why haven't you paid your account, or at least written us concerning the matter? the representative asked. "My dear sir," responded the delinquent, smiling, "these collection letters from your firm are the best I have ever seen. I have had copies made and am sending them out to the trade, and it's wonderful the number of old accounts I have been able to collect. I haven't paid my bill, as I felt sure there was another letter in the series. I have some hard customers to deal with, and I need the best letters."
